Use them to build letters and form spelling words. 	Torch Words - Set up an alphabet chart, turn out the lights and use a flashlight to shine on each letter (one letter at a time) to spell words.

Pavement Chalk - Go outside and spell your words using pavement chalk. Just taking the spelling practice outside makes it more fun.	Shaving Cream - This is a fun sensory activity. Make a thin layer of shaving cream on a tray and use a paintbrush or better yet a fingertip to spell out the words.	Trace in the Air - Watch as children trace the letters in the air to spell each word.	Alphabet Blocks - Use ABC blocks / bricks to spell words.	Craft Stick Spelling - Write the necessary letters on craft sticks, mix them up and have child build words using the appropriate sticks.	Scrabble Spelling - Use scrabble tiles to build words.
Build a Word with Lego - Using some masking tape or stickers, write the letters needed for each word ahead of time on some lego bricks. Mix them up and then call out a word and have child(ren) build it using the appropriate lego bricks and you will end up with some spelling word towers. Now that's a fun way to spell!	Cotton Bud Writing - Use Cotton Buds and paint to dot letters to spell the word or write the word using the cotton bud as a paint brush.	Alphabet Stickers - Build words using alphabet stickers	Small/Medium/Large Words - How boring is it to write words 3 or 5 times each? How about jazzing it up by having them write the word using the smallest letters they can possibly write, then doing it normal sized and finally jumbo sized. You could even try writing with eyes closed!  It makes writing practice so much more fun.	Bath Spelling - Use foam letters in the bath and stick onto the wall to make words.	Shower Spelling - Spread some shaving cream on your shower door or tiled wall over the bath and let your child(ren) finger write words.

Glue &amp; Glitter - Write out spelling words in glue and sprinkle some glitter on top. Glitter makes everything fun, doesn't it?	Wikki Stix - What a fun bendable material and perfect to use in building letters to spell words.	Alphabet Rocks - If you have a set of painted ABC rocks these can be a fun way to build and spell words. You could even make your own pebble letters.	Hidden Spelling Words - On a white piece of paper let your child write out the spelling words using a white crayon or candle. Once all words have been written use watercolour paints to make hidden words appear.	Bath Paint - Still feeling adventurous about the bath? Use bath paint and write or paint words onto your shower door, bath or tiled wall. It washes out!	Cereal Words - Using cereal like Cheerios or Rice Krispies build letters to form spelling words. Then have a sweet, crunchy snack.
Paint Bags - Pour paint into a ziplock freezer bag and seal. Secure with some tape. Use fingertips to write words on bag. To erase, simply squish bag and you are ready for the next word.	Penny or Coin Spelling - Use pennies or other small coins to make letters and spell out words. 	Print Words - Use newspaper or magazine print to cut out fun letters.
